OBJECTIVE

I am a student pursuing a BSIT degree in software engineering. I am passionate about front-end development and UX/UI design, and I want to gain hands-on experience and knowledge in these fields. I am eager to contribute to real-world projects and collaborate with professionals in the industry. I am also committed to learning and growing, and I believe that I have the potential to make a significant contribution to the field of front-end development and UX/UI design.
